

I do not believe anyone should have the right and privilege of calling people who do not wish to be called. Some people are sick and don't wish to be disturbed, others have small children and babies who may be napping or sleeping, others work off-peak shifts and may be sleeping when these (usually) hard-nosed salesmen make their calls, and many others just DO NOT wish to be interrupted by this harassment and haranguing.

Thank you